

ANNEX 6 CHAMPIONSHIPS, QUALIFIERS & SERIES

1. General:
 - 1.1 All Championships, Qualifiers & Series will be organised and administered in accordance with the rules of British Eventing
 - 1.2 Qualifications will not pass down the line unless specifically stated in a Championship, Qualifiers & Series.
 - 1.3 Where percentages are used to determine qualifying places these will be rounded up to the nearest whole number when the fraction is 0.50 or greater and down to the nearest whole number when the fraction is 0.49 or less.
 - 1.4 Hors Concours (HC) Competitors will not be included in the “number of eligible Starters” when calculating qualifying places
 - 1.5 Horses must have a correct Season Ticket and Competitors must be Introductory, Standard or Premier Members with British Eventing at the time of entry for all Championships except Area Championships at Area Festivals.
 - 1.6 References made in this Annex to “All” Classes at a particular level refers to all Classes that carry the label of the particular level. For example, “All BE90 Classes” refers to BE90, BE90Open, BE90u18, & BE90PC. “Restricted” Classes refers to all those Classes that within “All” Classes at a particular level are limited in their accessibility. For example, “Restricted BE90 Classes refers to BE90Open, BE90u18 & BE90PC. The exceptions to this are BE90 3DE, BE90 Area Festivals & the various BE90 Championships which are class entities unto themselves and do not fall under any of the definitions above.
 - 1.7 One (1) Qualification entitles the Rider to one (1) run at the subsequent Championship for which the qualification applies.
 - 1.8 A Double Clear is defined as one in which no show Jumping penalties (jumping or time) and no Cross Country penalties (jumping only) have been incurred.
 - 1.9 All relevant Championship, Qualifiers & Series information will be displayed on the British Eventing website
2. Entries:
 - 2.1 The onus rests with the Competitor to enter for each relevant Event.
 - 2.2 Owners will be advised by BE that their Horse has qualified for BE80/BE90/BE100/ Area Festivals and all Championships
